About

Cody Carter's set mixes 90s country, current radio country and classic country influences with his own songs, played with a professional band out of San Diego. Country crowds will recognize the stages he has shared: he opened for Lady A at Viejas Casino Resort and for Clint Black at Humphreys, and he played local support at Temecula Valley Wine Fest. He has also sold out Belly Up in Solana Beach, and his writing earned a 2024 San Diego Music Awards nomination for Best Country Song. The show is built for festivals, casinos, venues, private events and community stages.
