Crimson Collar

Nineties to Current Country Dance Hits

About

Three front singers trade leads and join in three-part harmonies in Crimson Collar. Two female vocalists and one male vocalist give the Orange County band room to cover country dance music from the nineties through current material. A fiddle player adds to the rhythm section, keeping the sound rooted in country. The repertoire draws on artists including Shania Twain, Miranda Lambert, Keith Urban, Toby Keith, George Strait, and Chris Stapleton, with line dancing and two-stepping at the center of the show's approach.
