Felice Garcia as Carrie Underwood

About

Felice Garcia is well known for her jaw-dropping Carrie performances in Las Vegas where she performed as Carrie with the American Superstars production at The Stratosphere Casino Hotel and Tower. She starred as Carrie Underwood, performing a tribute which Felice originated for the show, and for which she garnered rave reviews while performing over 400 shows as Carrie Underwood. This versatile performer has starred in a number of Las Vegas and Reno Nevada shows, including Principle singer of the Les Folies Bergere at the Tropicana Hotel and Casino when it ended its run after nearly 50 years. She has also featured in Fantasy at the Luxor and iCandy Burlesque at Planet Hollywood. The seasoned performer earned her Actor's Equity card by getting cast as the only female in the Tony Award-Winning Broadway Musical Million Dollar Quartet as Elvis Presley's love interest, Dyanne. After 800 shows at Harrah's Hotel and Casino, she packed up and moved to southern California to record an EP with Pacific Records.

Felice has toured nationally and has also spent a couple of months at sea on a cruise ship performing for an international audience as Christina Aguilera and Lady Gaga. But the performance that she is most proud of is her three tours to the Middle East to entertain the United States Air Force.

Felice has also performed and emceed for clients such as Nintendo, Rotary International, Caesars Entertainment, Grass Valley, NASCAR, Top Rank Boxing, MGM, and NAMM.
