Made in America - Toby Keith Tribute Band

A Tribute to Toby Keith

About

Made In America brings the sound and swagger of a Toby Keith concert to the stage with a 10-piece band, a live horn section, fiddle, and pedal steel. Fronted by Chicago Music Award winner Paul Wenzel, the band captures the big sound and rowdy spirit of Toby Keith and his Easy Money Band.

From “Should’ve Been a Cowboy” and “How Do You Like Me Now?!” to “Red Solo Cup,” “American Soldier,” and “Courtesy of the Red, White and Blue,” the show moves from barroom singalongs to the patriotic anthems that defined Toby’s career. The band has earned multiple Josie Music Awards nominations and an high praise from longtime Toby Keith guitarist Rich Eckhardt, who has joined them onstage for select performances.

In 2027, Made In America celebrates 10 years onstage with The X Tour, bringing its full-band concert experience to theaters, casinos, performing arts centers, fairs, and festivals. The band donates 100% of merchandise sales to The Toby Keith Foundation’s OK Kids Korral, which provides lodging for children undergoing cancer treatment and their families.
