About

Felice Garcia is a singer most well known for her memorable role in the Tony Award-winning musical, Million Dollar Quartet where she performed more than 800 shows at Harrah's Hotel & Casino on the Las Vegas Strip. Prior to Million Dollar Quartet, she was the principal singer in the longest running show on the Las Vegas strip, Les Folies Bergere at the Tropicana.

During her time spent in Las Vegas, Felice also headlined in the hit show, American Superstars at the Stratosphere, most notably with her tribute to Carrie Underwood, and performed in Fantasy at the Luxor, iCandy Burlesque at Planet Hollywood, and Limelight at the Plaza.

Felice produced and starred in her own show titled Country Diva: The Show at the Riverside Resort in Laughlin, NV. In this full-fledged production show (now available for booking nation-wide), Felice salutes the greats of Country Music, such as Patsy Cline, Tammy Wynette, Dolly Parton, Miranda Lambert & more, while adding her distinct flavor of heart and comedy.

In addition to her love of the stage, Felice is also a passionate songwriter, and in 2015 she relocated to Los Angeles, CA where she recorded an EP of original music with Pacific Records and had the incredible opportunity to perform as the supporting act for notable bands such as Green Day & The Chainsmokers.

On top of everything else, Felice is an active volunteer with Musicians On Call (bringing music directly to the bedsides of patients, their families, and caregivers in healthcare settings), and some of her proudest moments have been performing THREE tours of the Middle East entertaining the United States Air Force.
